Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Employer identification number

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
 2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
 3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below), and
 4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
 2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
 3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
 - A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
 - An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
 - A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the party has entered into this Agreement as of the date and year first above set forth.

LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY

WHEREAS, David Zelman, of 6319 Mill Point Circle, Dallas, Texas 75248 (the “Principal”), intends to, either directly or indirectly, through entities beneficially owned by him or established by him, including one or more limited liability companies and related qualified pension plans under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Entities”), enter into agreements to purchase stock in one or more publically traded companies (on margin or otherwise), enter into forward sales contracts in respect of one or more publically traded companies, enter into one or more notional principal contracts, and open one or more custody accounts with such institutions to accomplish the foregoing, including, without limitation, with Solo Capital Limited and Solo Capital Partners LLP, and to execute such documents and agreements as shall be necessary to implement the foregoing (the “Transactions”).

WHEREAS, the Principal intends to execute, or cause to be executed, any and all documentation necessary to establish bank, investment, security, and/or custody accounts, both foreign and domestic, for the purposes of implementing the foregoing, with such financial institutions or brokers to implement the Transactions, including, without limitation, with Solo Capital Limited and Solo Capital Partners LLP (collectively the “Financial Institutions”).

WHEREAS, the Principal desires to appoint Michael Ben-Jacob, of c/o Kaye Scholer, 425 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10022 to be his true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact (the “Agent”) as more specifically provided below in respect of the Transactions.

NOW, THEREFORE, by this Power of Attorney made effective as of the 30th day of June 2014, the Principal hereby appoints the Agent with full power and authority for him and in his name and on his behalf to:

1. Execute any and all documents and forms related to the organization and establishment of the Entities.
2. Execute any and all forms and documents with the Financial Institutions as shall be necessary to establish bank, investment, security, and/or custody accounts with said Financial Institutions, including, but not limited to, any such documents that are required to appoint an authorized trader under any applicable account opening documents.
3. Execute any and all forward sales contracts, security lending agreements, guarantee deeds, custody agreements, tax reclaim agreements and any such other related documents in connection with the Transactions.
4. Execute, or cause to be executed, any and all documentation related to the foregoing or reasonably necessary to implement the foregoing.

Other Powers of Attorney. This Power of Attorney shall not revoke any prior Power of Attorney appointing any other attorney-in-fact or agent of the Principal, and any two such attorneys-in-fact or agents that have been granted concurrent authority may act separately.

Indemnity. The Principal agrees to indemnify any third party for any claims that may arise against the third party because of reliance on this Power of Attorney. The Principal understands that any termination of this Power of Attorney, whether the result of the Principal’s revocation of the Power of Attorney or otherwise, is not effective as to a third party until the third party has actual notice or knowledge of the termination.

The Principal, expressly warrants, represents and agrees to indemnify the Agent, if the Agent is or was a party to or witness or other participant in, or is threatened to be made a party to or witness or other participant in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative for any action or inaction on the part of the Agent in connection with this Power of Attorney against any expenses (including attorneys' fees and costs), judgments, fines, any interest, assessments, and other charges and amounts paid in settlement or actually incurred by the Agent in connection with that action, suit or proceeding except to the extent that there is a final unappealable judicial determination based on clear and convincing evidence (1) that the Agent's conduct was not taken in good faith or constitutes willful misconduct, or (2) with respect to any criminal action, proceeding or investigation that the Agent had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the Agent did not act in good faith, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the Agent's conduct was unlawful. All costs and expenses of indemnification as provided by this paragraph, including legal fees, shall be paid currently by the Principal as they are incurred by the Agent until it shall ultimately be determined that the Agent is not entitled to be indemnified by the Principal against such expenses. At all times, the Agent shall be free to employ counsel of his choosing. The Agent shall be under no obligation to refund these payments (or to post security for refunding) unless and until there is an affirmative, final and unappealable finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Agent's conduct complained of in the litigation constituted bad faith or willful misconduct.

Governing Law. This Power of Attorney (and any dispute, controversy, proceedings or claim of whatever nature arising out of or in any way relating to this Power of Attorney, its subject matter or its formation, (including non-contractual disputes or claims)) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of the State of New York.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Power of Attorney effective as of the date first written above.
